He cautioned all animals he came across “Hey brothers and Sisters, run away from this place. The earth is tearing apart.” Now, there was panic all across the forest. All animals started to run. However, they all came to a halt with the loud roar of the lion — king of the forest. “Stop all of you fools. Where are you running away ? What are you running away from ?” he asked. The animals looked at one another without an answer. The rabbit said, “My lord, I was resting under a tree. I heard a loud noise. I think the earth is tearing apart.” With a smile, the lion said, “OK rabbit, show me the place.”

All animals went along to the tree. There, they saw many fruits fallen down. Only now did they really understand the reason for the sound. "Fruits had fallen down with a thud. You silly rabbit mistook it and made all the animals panic." The lion said with a laugh and left the place. The other animals felt ashamed to have blindly followed the rabbit.
