

ASSIGNMENT NUMBER – 9
TOPIC- I VOW TO THEE, MY COUNTRY

Q1. What kind of love does the poet profess for his country?

Q2. Explain: 'Her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering.'

Q3. How does the poet describe the God's country?

Q4. ANSWER WITH REFERENCE TO CONTEXT:

I. 'The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.'

- a) What do you think the poet means by 'the final sacrifice'?
- b) From which poem is the above line taken?

II. 'And there's another country I have heard of long ago.'

- a) What does 'another country' refer to in the above line?
- b) How different is this 'another country' from an ordinary country?

III. 'We may not count her armies; we may not see her king.'

- a) To whom does 'king' refer to in the above line?
- b) Name the poet.