

Comparison of Adjectives

I. Rewrite the sentences given below using antonyms of the underlined degree of adjective:

a. My father was reading a very interesting book.

---

b. This pair of jeans is cheaper than the other one.

---

c. Ravi was the fastest runner in the team.

---

d. Yesterday was the coldest day of the month.

---

e. The fruits in the basket were fresh.

---

f. I am better at playing football than cricket.

---

II. Correct and rewrite the sentences given below using the right degree of adjective:

a. March is the good month to visit Kashmir if you wish to see the tulips in full bloom.

---

b. Her bag is light than mine.

---

c. Priya was looking for a prettiest gown to wear to the party.

---

d. Akbar was one of the mighty emperors of India.

---

e. Siddharth is most intelligent than his friend.

---

f. My mother told me to be carefulest while crossing the road.

---