

Ln.5 WATER

I.Fill in the blanks.

1. _____ are substances that make water unfit for consumption.
2. _____ is a good solvent.
3. _____ percent of the earth is covered with water.
4. _____ water is the purest form of water.
5. In the process of distillation the pure water obtained is called _____.
6. In the process of filtration the clear water obtained is called _____.

II.Choose the correct answer.

- 1.Soluble impurities can be removed by (evaporation/filtration).
- 2.We use (water filters/coolers) at home to filter drinking water.
- 3.Substances that dissolve in water are called (soluble/insoluble).
- 4.We can remove soluble impurities by the process of (sedimentation/distillation).
- 5.Filter paper is used in the process of (filtration/distillation).
- 6.Water can be disinfected with a very small quantity of (chlorine gas/oxygen gas).

III.Name the following.

- 1.A universal solvent. _____
- 2.A chemical used to kill germs in water _____
- 3.The process of settling down the impurities in water _____
- 4.Two methods to remove soluble impurities in water.

_____, _____