

Q1. Fill in the blanks using a, an or the .

- a) _____ Mount Everest is in _____ Himalayas.
- b) _____ Nile is the longest river in _____ world.
- c) Shweta is _____ artist.
- d) How many days are there in _____ year?
- e) Dhruv had _____ egg, _____ slice of bread and _____ orange for the breakfast.
- f) _____ Indian Ocean is the only ocean that is named after _____ country.
- g) Meera would like to eat _____ ice cream.
- h) _____ Red Fort is in Delhi.
- i) I read _____ story about _____ boy who wanted to go to _____ moon.
- j) My father reads _____ Indian Express every morning.

Q2. Complete the story by filling the blanks with correct articles.

One night, _____ policeman was walking along _____ street. Suddenly he heard _____ cry. It came from _____ old house behind _____ clock tower. _____ policeman ran towards _____ house. He climbed over _____ wall. "What is _____ matter?" asked _____ policeman. "Nothing," said _____ girl. "I was reading _____ story and I was frightened."

Q3. Who said to whom?

- a) I am ready to sacrifice anything for my family.

- b) Do you know how hard your parents work to earn me?

c) Make sure you do not neglect your health and studies.

Q4. Fill in the blanks as directed.

a) It is Neeta's birthday today. That is why she is _____ sweets to everybody. (opposite of collecting)

b) I _____ in the park in the evening. (future tense of play)

c) Jaya will go to Shimla with her _____. (opposite gender of son)

d) My uncle _____ to U.S.A. next week. (future tense of go)

e) _____ makes us healthy. (opposite of junk food)

f) When Amit got first rank in abacus competition, his teachers _____ him and congratulated him. (past tense of pat)

g) An _____ man knocked at the door. (opposite of familiar)

Q5. Un-jumble to make meaningful words.

a) F U N T T E A O R - _____

b) M E O Y N - _____

Q6. Correct the following statements and rewrite them in the given space.

a) Jainulabdeen's boats were destroyed in an earthquake.

b) Honey wanted books from his mother.

c) Abdul worked as a vegetable vendor in the evening.

d) According to Money, we should listen to our dreams.
