Read this poem carefully.

FIREFLY IN MY ROOM

Last night, as I lay sleepless
In the summer dark
With window open to invite the breeze,
And circled round the room
Twinkling at me from floor to wall
Or ceiling, never long in one place,

But lighting up little spaces...
A friendly presence, dispelling
The settled gloom of an unhappy day.
And after it had gone, I left
The window open, just in case
It should return
