INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

Read the following instructions carefully before you answer the questions. Answers are to be given on the answer-sheet, which combines both the tests :

- (1) Please write your Centre Code and Seat No. very clearly (only one digit in one block). Before writing your Seat No. get it ascertained from the Centre Conductor. Please see that no block is left unfilled and even zeros appearing in the Centre Code and Seat No. are correctly transferred to the appropriate blocks on the booklet and on the answer-sheet.

Example :

CENTRE CODE	केंद्र संकेतांक	3	9
-------------	-----------------	---	---	--	--	--	--	--	--

SEAT NO.	आसन क्रमांक	2	3	9	1	7
----------	-------------	---	---	---	---	---	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

For all subsequent purposes your Centre Code and Seat No. shall remain the same. Centre once allotted will not be changed.

- (2) All questions carry one mark each.
- (3) Since all questions are compulsory do not try to read through the whole question paper before beginning to answer it.
- (4) Begin with the first question and keep on trying one question after another till you finish.
- (5) If you do not know the answer to any question do not spend much time on it and pass on to the next one. Time permitting you can come back to the questions which you have left in the first instance and try them again.
- (6) Since the time allotted is very short you should make best use of it. The rough work is to be done in the box given under each page.
- (7) Remember you have to mark on your answers in "Language Testing" section of the answer-sheet only.
- (8) Answer to each question is to be indicated in the answer-sheet by encircle by black pen in the appropriate number of alternative in the answer-sheet from amongst the ones given for the corresponding question in the test booklet.
- (9) Do not write anything except Centre Code, Seat No. and rough work anywhere in this booklet.
- (10) Now turn to the next page and start answering the questions.

LANGUAGE TESTING—ENGLISH

Directions (Q. Nos. 1-5) :

Read the passage and answer the questions based on it :

In towns and cities of north and west India, kite flying is a craze. People fly their kites mostly from the roofs of their houses. At some places kites are flown from open grounds. Being a fun sports all times, kites are flown throughout the year. However there are some special occasions, on which every enthusiast involves himself in Patang Baazi. These occasions include Makar Sankranti, Basant Panchami, Raksha Bandhan, and Independence Day.

Basant Panchami is one of the biggest festivals of North India. It heralds both the approach of the harvest and the end of winter. This spring festival is celebrated by flying kites, mainly of yellow colour, which represents the ripening mustard in the fields. From the morning onwards, the roofs of almost every house become full of young and old keeping their kites afloat. By early afternoon, the sky becomes peppered with kites of different colours and sizes. The fun of Basant Panchami does not preclude the intense competition that is a unique north Indian phenomenon—cutting each other's kite lines. Each time a kite's lifeline is severed, a cheer, "Bo-kata" (loosely translated as "a kite cut off"), is sent up by the victor.

Read the following passage and answer the questions based on it :

It could be a scene straight out of a horror film. Only it was reality in suburban Mumbai. Rain lashed on the ground. A hundred children wailed in terror in a cramped, dark hall. Water gushed in from all sides and inched up. The inmates of Additional Bal Griha of the Children's Aid Society mostly terrified children, sang their daily prayer : "Itni shakti humme dena data". Asma, however, was the odd one out. She started calculating how soon the children will start drowning. "I could only think of one thing. That I couldn't bear to see the smaller ones drown. I am their didi." She picked up two of the smaller kids and jumped into the water nearly five feet of dirty, black liquid. "I don't know how to swim. So, slowly I moved across the slippery ground, keeping my head up to keep the water from getting into my mouth and nose." She made over a dozen such trips, carrying nearly 40 kids on her shoulders to safety. Wasn't she scared ? "Nothing scares me," she says. Why didn't any of the other inmates join her ? "Oh,

Directions (Q. Nos. 11-15) :

Read the passage and answer the following questions :

In 1933-34 I got my first chance to play in Test cricket in India. The M.C.C. team under Douglas Jardine was in our country to play three Test matches. Fortunately I was able to do sufficiently well to retain my place in all the three Tests.

During the Test matches my younger sister, Laxmi, had given me an autograph book to get the autographs of the visiting players. I had carefully put down M.C.C. Touring Team — 1933-34 on one of the pages. Under this heading I took the autographs of all the 16 players who visited India.

Two months later I had an occasion to approach Gandhiji for his autograph which my sister was very keen to have. There were quite a few people present when I made my request. Gandhiji smiled and leafed through the pages of the autograph book and then underneath the names of the M.C.C. players wrote. '17 — M.K. Gandhi'. I immediately understood the greatness of the man and what had prompted him. By that unforgettable signature as the seventeenth man of the M.C.C. team he showed that although he was prepared to fight the British Government tooth and nail for the independence of India, he had nothing against the common man of England and was prepared to put himself down as the seventeenth man of an English Cricket Team.

11. Which nations' teams played three test matches ?
