What tasks, do you think, were assigned to the dog and the ox?

Answer:

The dog was assigned the task of fetching and carrying. The ox was made to plough the fields.

Question 2:

Why did the camel live in the middle of the desert?

Answer:

The camel lived in the middle of the desert because it didn't want to work.

Question 3:

What made the dog, the horse and the ox very angry?

Answer:

The dog, the horse and the ox were angry because man, their master, told them to work double time to make up for the camel's idleness.

Question 4:

How did the Djinn know the horse was complaining against the camel?

Answer:

The Djinn was the master of deserts. So he was able to know easily who the animal with a long neck and long legs was.

Question 1:

The Camel was looking at his own reflection in the pool. What does it suggest to you about the camel?

<https://www.indcareer.com/schools/ncert-solutions-for-8th-class-english-chapter-1-it-so-happened-how-the-camel-got-his-hump/>

Answer:

This statement suggests that the camel loved its own image in the pool. Perhaps he considered himself handsome looking.

Question 2:

The camel said, “Humph” repeatedly. How did it affect him?

Answer:

The word ‘Humph’ annoyed the Djinn. He turned ‘humph’ into the hump on the camel’s back.

Question 3:

What, according to the Djinn, was the use of the ‘humph’?

Answer:

The camel’s hump contained food material. It helped the desert animal go without any food for three days.

Question 4:

“...he has never yet learnt to behave.” In the light of this, what is the writer’s opinion about the camel?

Answer:

The writer is of the opinion that the camel has not changed its nature and habits to this day.
